Introduction

The WIRE COST Action Final MC Meeting: "Reflecting on Achievements and Shaping Future Collaborations" will take place on September 15th and 16th, in the surroundings of Mont-de-Marsan, located in the southwest of France.

The event will be hosted at Agrolandes, an agri-food technopole situated in Haut-Mauco, just 10 minutes from Mont-de-Marsan.

Mont-de-Marsan has a train station (terminus) and is conveniently located near several airports.

How to get here ?

There are four main airports located near Mont-de-Marsan, but Bordeaux remains the best option for reaching the town.

Bordeaux

Toulouse

Pau

Biarritz

Bordeaux

There are two main ways to get there.

With car rental being the easiest and most flexible option. By car, it takes approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes to drive from Bordeaux Airport to the center of Mont-de-Marsan

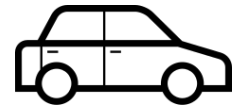

Alternatively, you can travel by train. First, take a shuttle bus from the airport to Bordeaux train station (about 30 minutes), then board a train to Mont-de-Marsan, which takes around 1 hour and 30 minutes.

Toulouse

Toulouse-Blagnac Airport is another possible option.

By car, the drive to Mont-de-Marsan takes around 2 hours and 30 minutes.

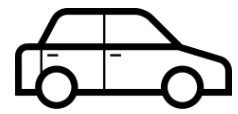

By train, you will need to take a shuttle or tram from the airport to Toulouse Matabiau train station (approximately 30 - 40 minutes), then take a train to Mont-de-Marsan, with a connection usually required in Bordeaux. The total journey by train can take around 3,5 to 4 hours depending on the schedule.

Pau

Pau-Pyrénées Airport is closer to Mont-de-Marsan.

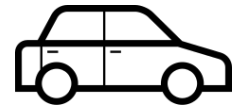

Driving from the airport takes approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Biarritz

Biarritz Pays Basque Airport is another nearby option.

By car, it takes roughly 1 hour and 45 minutes to reach Mont-de-Marsan.
